

I really enjoyed the concert last night. The Verdi might be a little OTT at times but it certainly thrilled. The choir was on very good form, the soloists were ace, particularly the soprano the wall of sound that flooded the auditorium during these moments of extreme wrath was a definite amalgam of human voice and musical instrument and, once or twice, raised the hair on the back of my neck. – Audience member

Many congratulations to The Choral Society on an awesome performance of Verdi's Requiem last night. It was a real pleasure to be there. – Audience member

Last night was a real triumph. Personally, I thought it was the most exciting, moving, successful and well organised performance of Verdi's Requiem I have ever taken part in - and I have sung in many! – Choir member

Well what a concert! I think everyone must feel very proud of the performance and what a way to celebrate the 20th season! Tonight the applause said it all and I noticed there was a standing ovation by some – much deserved and a sentiment I'm sure that is shared by all who were present in whatever capacity. We had a really super experience and send our congratulations to everyone. Bravo! – Audience member

A fantastic evening - best performance EVER. The soprano - my word, what a voice. The choir was truly professional. – Friend

A thrilling Verdi, thank you. Worth missing "Strictly" for!! - Audience
